

RADMIR

ALONG THE SILK ROAD

A Narrated Musical Journey Through Eurasia

Classical Guitarist & Composer

Honored Artist of the Republic of Bashkortostan (2021)

THE CONCERT

ONE GUITAR.
A WORLD OF STORIES.

Along the Silk Road is a solo classical guitar concert by composer and performer RADMIR, combining original compositions with the rich musical heritage of Eurasia.

Throughout the performance, RADMIR shares personal stories and insights into the music, cultural traditions, and historical influences behind his compositions, inviting audiences to discover the connections between different cultures through sound.

Drawing on his Bashkir heritage, classical training, and research into traditional music, he creates an intimate experience where musical performance and storytelling come together.

More than a recital, Along the Silk Road is an invitation to travel across cultures, landscapes, and centuries through the expressive voice of a single classical guitar.

RADMIR in performance

FORMAT	Solo classical guitar with live storytelling
DURATION	Approximately 70–75 minutes
BASED IN	Los Angeles, California
AVAILABLE FOR	Concert halls, festivals, universities, museums, cultural centers, and intimate performance venues

ABOUT THE ARTIST

RADMIR

CLASSICAL GUITARIST · COMPOSER · CULTURAL STORYTELLER

RADMIR (Radmir Muftakhin) is a Los Angeles–based classical guitarist, composer, and Honored Artist of the Republic of Bashkortostan (2021).

Trained in the classical guitar tradition in Moscow, RADMIR brings together his background in classical performance, original composition, and the musical heritage of his native Bashkortostan.

His artistic work has been recognized in international and national guitar competitions. He received the Highest Prize Awarded in Composition at the 2014 Virtuosos of the Guitar International Competition.

RADMIR has performed in the United States and Europe, and his creative work extends to recordings, arrangements of traditional melodies, and music for film.

Honors & Recognition

Honored Artist of the Republic of Bashkortostan	2021
Virtuosos of the Guitar International Competition Highest Prize Awarded in Composition	2014
Laureate of international and Russian national classical guitar performance competitions

EXPERIENCE THE MUSIC

HEAR THE MUSIC.
SEE THE PERFORMANCE.

Buranbai — Live Performance

Heart of Eurasia Festival, Bashkortostan, 2019. RADMIR performing before an audience of approximately 40,000.

Scan or click to watch on YouTube
youtube.com/watch?v=AABJ1xoW9uI

Sadness of the Queen — Original Composition

Composed by Radmir Muftakhin. Performed by Irina Kulikova. Recorded at Guitar Salon International (GSI).

Scan or click to watch on YouTube
youtube.com/watch?v=GpCw7re5p_o

Critical Acclaim

"Vivid and concise. Professional, with a deep understanding of harmony and polyphony. Jazz harmonies and contemporary rhythms are skillfully and tastefully woven into Bashkir melodies."

Rovshan Mamedkuliev
Classical Guitarist · Winner of the Guitar Foundation of America International Concert Artist Competition

"I consider his arrangements of Bashkir folk melodies for classical guitar to be unique."

Nikita Koshkin
Composer · Classical Guitarist · RADMIR's Former Teacher

BOOKING & PRESENTERS

BRING “ALONG THE SILK ROAD” TO YOUR STAGE

Along the Silk Road is available for concert presentations, cultural programming, university events, festivals, and intimate performance experiences.

BOOKING

radmirguitar@gmail.com

WEBSITE

radmirmusic.com

THE CONCERT

ARTIST	RADMIR (Radmir Muftakhin)
PROGRAM	Along the Silk Road
FORMAT	Solo classical guitar with live storytelling
DURATION	Approximately 70–75 minutes
VENUES	Concert halls, festivals, universities, museums, and cultural institutions

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

- Armless chair
- Microphone and stand
- Appropriate sound reinforcement depending on the venue